MILITARY SCIENCE AND LEADERSHIP
These courses are through the cooperative ROTC program with the University of South Dakota. Students interested in enrolling in the courses should contact Sharon Messerschmidt, Continuing Education Office at BCU, ext. 5530.
MSL-101	Introduction to the Army
	MSL 101 focuses on introduction to the Army and critical thinking. It introduces Cadets to the Army and the Profession of Arms.
	Students will examine the Army Profession and what it means to be a professional in the U.S. Army. The overall focus is on developing basic knowledge and comprehension of the Army Leadership Requirements Model while gaining a complete understanding of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) program, its purpose in the Army, and its advantages for the student. Cadets also learn how resiliency and fitness supports their development as an Army leader.

MSL 102	Foundations of Agile and Adaptive Leadership
	MSL 102 introduces Cadets to the personal challenges and competencies that are critical for effective leadership. Cadets learn how through the personal development of life skills such as critical thinking, time management, goal setting, and communication. Cadets learn the basics of communications process and the importance for leader's to develop the essential skills to effectively communicate in the Army.
MSL 201	Leadership and Decision Making
	MSL 201 focuses on leadership and decision making. The course adds depth to the Cadets understanding of the Adaptability Army Learning Area. The outcomes are demonstrated through critical and creative thinking and the ability to apply Troop Leading Procedures (TLP) to apply innovative solutions to problems. The Army Profession is also stressed through leadership forums and a leadership self-assessment.
MSL 202	Army Doctrine and Team Development
	MSL 202 focuses on Army doctrine and team development. The course begins the journey to understand and demonstrate competencies as they relate to Army doctrine. Army Values, Teamwork, and Warrior Ethos and their relationship to the Law of Land Warfare and philosophy of military service are also stressed. The ability to lead and follow is also covered through team building exercises at squad level.
